

3 Exclusive Receptions

Come share refreshments and conversation at a post-concert reception with CSO musicians, guest artists and conductors. This exclusive event will be held on three different dates during the 2010-2011 season. The setting is the spectacular Club at Symphony Center located on the 9th floor, the perfect venue for festive occasions.

Nightcap's Setting - The Club

The Club's main dining room setting on the 9th floor provides a spectacular view of Millennium Park and the lake front skyline. The dining room's outdoor terrace is an especially striking setting from which to enjoy starlit evenings.

The Club is a private dining facility located within Symphony Center. With its own Executive Chef and culinary staff, The Club offers one of the most complimented dining experiences in the city. Members enjoy an expansive array of menu selections throughout the season with attentive and personalized service to build upon your evening at the symphony.

Club Membership

Membership in The Club at Symphony Center is a benefit for individual Annual Fund contributors of $3,500 or more, corporate Annual Fund contributors of $5,000 or more as well as Theodore Thomas Society Stradivarius members.

Members enjoy the convenience of private dining within Symphony Center as well as these special benefits:

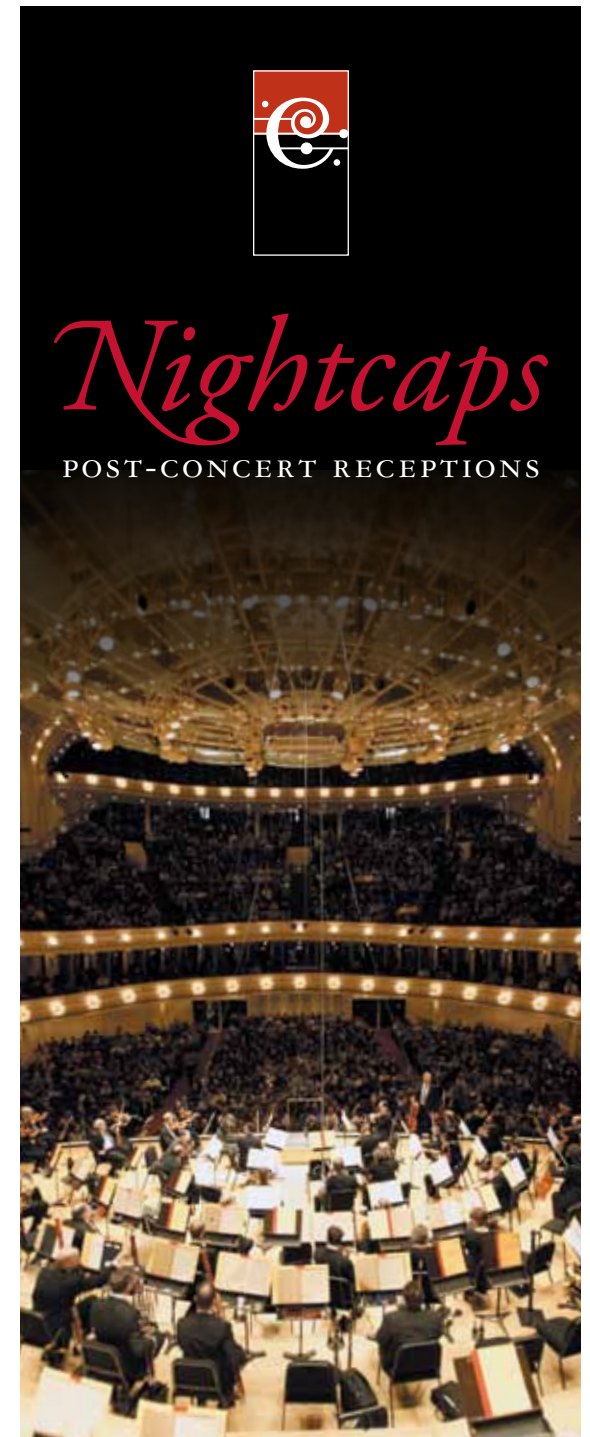

- Personalized service for your dining specifications;
- Assistance with ticketing services, such as ticket reprints, while you are dining at The Club;
- Advance notice for special events in The Club;
- Waived rental fees for events held in The Club;
- All donor benefits at the Sonata level ($3,500) and below

To become a Club Member, please contact the CSO Development Office at 312-294-3100.

POST-CONCERT RECEPTIONS

JANUARY 6 · MARCH 22 · MAY 19

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 8:00
Prokofiev 5

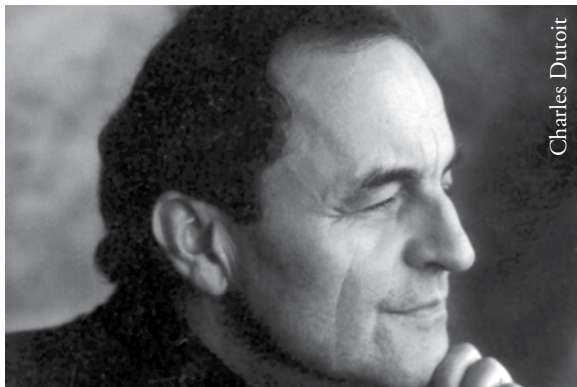

Sir Mark Elder

Chicago Symphony Orchestra
Sir Mark Elder conductor
Stephen Hough piano
Liadov Baba-Yaga
Liadov The Enchanted Lake
Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1
Prokofiev Symphony No. 5

For this all-Russian program, Sir Mark Elder has selected seminal masterworks from the repertoire, including Prokofiev's Fifth Symphony, which the composer premiered in Moscow on the eve of the Allied victory in World War II. British pianist Stephen Hough completes his survey of Tchaikovsky's piano concertos with the famous and brilliant Concerto No. 1.

TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 7:30
Enigma Variations

Charles Dutoit

Chicago Symphony Orchestra
Charles Dutoit conductor
John Sharp cello
Kenneth Olsen cello
Katinka Kleijn cello
Berlioz Roman Carnival Overture
Penderecki Concerto Grosso for Three Cellos and Orchestra
Elgar Enigma Variations

The CSO's cellists shine when John Sharp, Kenneth Olsen and Katinka Kleijn are featured in Penderecki's Concerto Grosso. Esteemed conductor Charles Dutoit leads Elgar's famous Enigma Variations, in which each movement is a musical caricature of one of Elgar's friends.

THURSDAY, MAY 19, 8:00
Trumpet Treasures

Ludovic Morlot

Ludovic Morlot conductor
Christopher Martin trumpet
Dutilleux Symphony No. 2 (Le double)
Tomasi Trumpet Concerto
Jolivet Concertino for Trumpet
Roussel Bacchus and Ariadne Suites Nos. 1 and 2

Principal Trumpet Christopher Martin is featured in two brilliant concertos on this all-French program of 20th-century gems. "Martin played beautifully, spinning shapely phrases with a sweet, rounded tone, nailing the high-wire runs of the finale with easy brilliance," stated the Chicago Tribune in a recent review.
