

DREAM[©] OUT LOUD

When I was ten years old, my dad gave me a recording of the Sibelius Second Symphony. When I heard that big brass fanfare at the end,

I was HOOKED!

I never dreamed it would lead me to the world-famous Chicago Symphony Orchestra. It takes practice and patience to learn music, but it's worth it when you LOVE IT!

BE PATIENT AND PERSEVERE.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Yamaha support every student's decision to play an instrument and have a lifelong involvement in music.

CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Tage Larsen
TRUMPET

www.cso.org/dreamoutloud