CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES ADDITIONAL CONCERT CANCELLATIONS

CSOA-Presented Concerts and Events Scheduled Through May 10 are Canceled

CHICAGO—The Chicago Symphony Orchestra Association (CSOA) announces that CSOA-presented concerts and events at Symphony Center and at offsite community locations, scheduled through May 10, are canceled in cooperation with community-wide efforts to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.

A complete listing of canceled CSOA-presented concerts and events through Sunday, May 10 is available here. Pre- and post-concert events are also canceled. The CSOA is reviewing opportunities to reschedule affected programs in subsequent seasons.

During this period, personal messages from musicians of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra are being shared regularly on the CSO’s Facebook, Instagram and Twitter channels, with additional audio and video content available online on CSO Sounds & Stories and YouTube.

Patrons with tickets to canceled concerts have options, including exchanging tickets into future concerts, returning tickets and putting the money on account, and converting the value of tickets to a tax-deductible contribution. More information is available at cso.org or by calling Symphony Center Patron Services at 312-294-3000.

Additional information for CSOA patrons is available at cso.org/alert.

# #