CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ASSOCIATION
ANNOUNCES CONCERT CANCELLATION DETAILS

All CSOA-Presented Concerts and Events Offsite and at Symphony Center
Scheduled Through Sunday, April 12 are Canceled

CHICAGO—Following yesterday’s mandates issued by Illinois Governor J.B. Pritzker and Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot in an effort to limit community transmission of COVID-19, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Association (CSOA) announced that all CSOA-presented concerts and events at Symphony Center scheduled through at least the next 30 days are canceled. In addition to these cancellations, the CSOA announces that all CSOA-presented concerts and events scheduled offsite in community locations through Sunday, April 12 are also canceled.

During this period, there are more than 100 affected concerts and events including Chicago Symphony Orchestra (CSO), CSO at the Movies, CSO School and Family, MusicNOW, CSO All-Access Chamber Music, Symphony Center Presents (SCP) Jazz, SCP Piano, Civic Orchestra of Chicago, Civic Chamber Music and CSO African American Network presentations, as well as education and engagement activities presented by the Negaunee Music Institute at the CSO. All pre- and post-concert events are also canceled.

A complete listing of CSOA-presented concerts and events that are canceled between now and Sunday, April 12 is available here.

Patrons with tickets to canceled concerts have options, including exchanging tickets into future concerts, returning tickets and putting the money on account, donating tickets or requesting a refund. More information is available at cso.org or by calling Symphony Center at 312-294-3000.

Additional information for CSOA patrons is available at cso.org/alert
